

HOTEL NEW OTANI HAKATA

The New Otani

A Part of Fukuoka's History

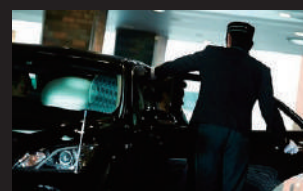

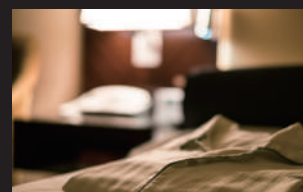

Celebrating our 40th year in business we renovated the “Tsuru” large size banquet hall in September of 2017 to mark the occasion. With an underground corridor linking it to the nearby Denki Building Kyosokan for convenient joint access and the only hotel in the city with two large banquet halls, our hotel can accommodate conventions and other large gatherings of up to 4,000.

Though firmly grounded in tradition, we are constantly adapting to the ever-changing needs of modern society, and our mission is to provide simply the best of service and hospitality.

Warm Hospitality and Luxurious Service

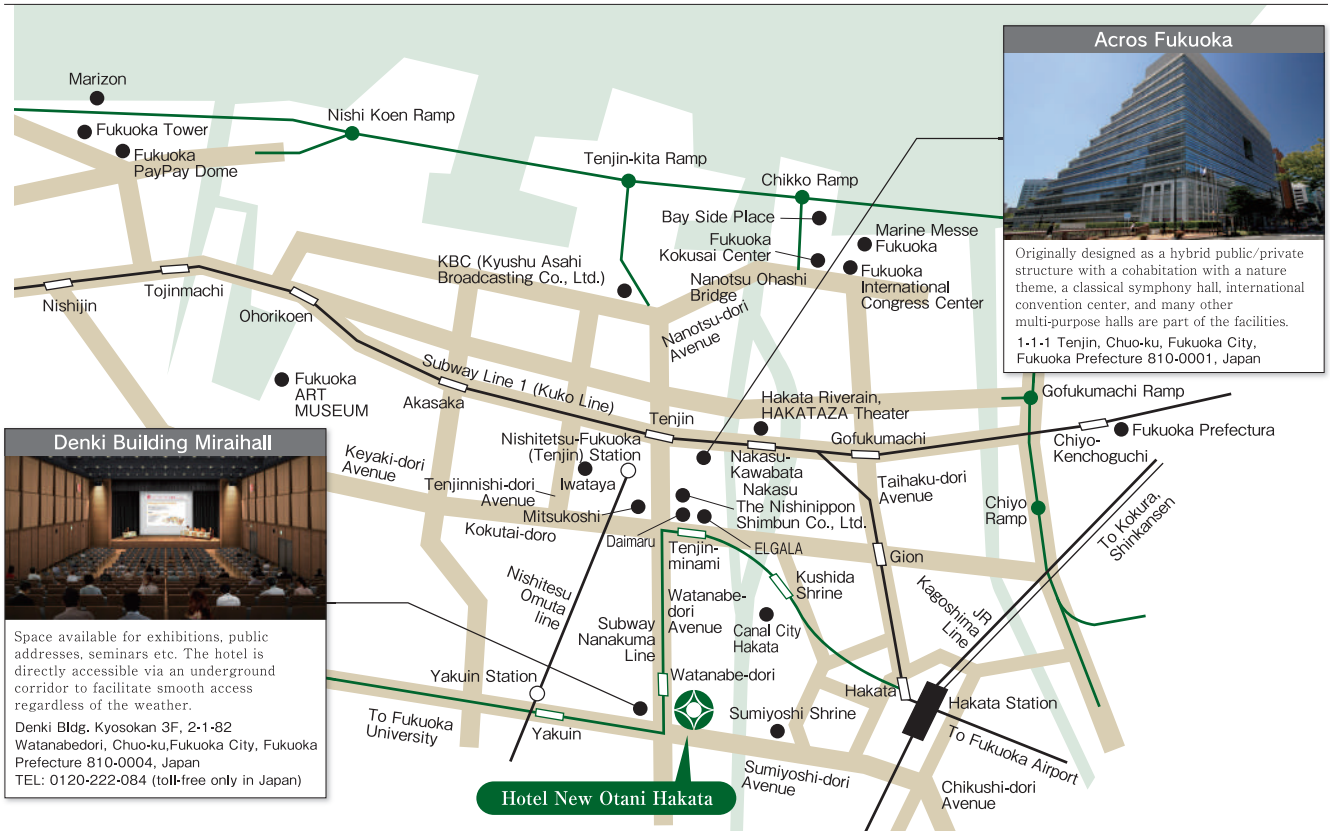

Being the only hotel in downtown Fukuoka to have 2 large banquet halls in addition to 10 other banquet halls, 7 different restaurants and bars featuring Western, Japanese and Chinese fine-dining our hotel has 372 guest rooms with a wide variety of layout and décor providing the best in service and hospitality.

Among our previous guests, we count the Japanese royal family, foreign heads-of-state and we have hosted numerous international conventions as well. It would be our greatest pleasure to welcome you too.

ACCESS

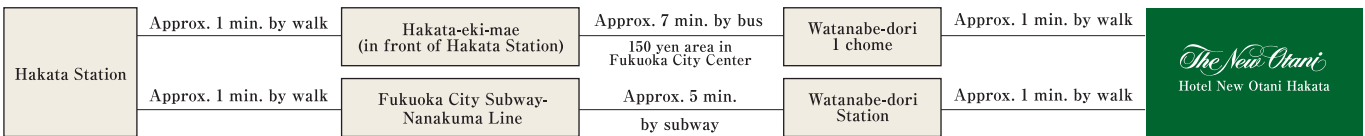

Located between Hakata and Tenjin, the hotel provides convenient access to the greater Fukuoka area.

LOCATION Hotel Otani Hakata Local Area Map

Hakata Area	Nakasu area	Tenjin Area	Momochi area
A center for commerce and tourism, the city is home to Kyushu's largest train station, Hakata Station, and has excellent access to air and seaports as well.	Culture and history abound here where Hakata and Tenjin blend to become the most impressive urban center in Western Japan.	Complete with department stores, bank/financial offices and other large institutions, the cityscape is on par with Hakata.	This subsection of the city is a resort area near the ocean and is dotted with skyscrapers.

History During the Meiji Period, the flourishing "merchant city" of Hakata and the "samurai city" of Tenjin merged to become Fukuoka City. Even today these two areas continue to compete with one another as they grow and develop. Also known as the "Gateway to Asia" tourists from all over the world can be found here in great number.
